

LAND, REAL ESTATE & REAL PROPERTY

LAND

Land is defined as the materials of the earth, whether soil, rock, or other substance, and includes free or unoccupied space for an indefinite distance upwards as well as downwards.

RAW LAND

Land in its natural state, with no man-made improvements such as cleaning, clearing, digging, grading, etc. is known as raw land.

Land includes:

Trees and bushes

Grass

Boulders

REAL ESTATE

Real estate is defined as land plus anything permanently attached to land.

Improvements include:

Houses / Garages

Fences

$$\text{REAL ESTATE} = \text{LAND} + \text{IMPROVEMENTS}$$

REAL PROPERTY

Real property is defined as land, things affixed to land, appurtenances, plus the bundle of rights.

BUNDLE OF RIGHTS

The legal rights, or interests, that an individual has in a particular piece of property.

- Right of Possession
- Right to Dispose
- Right to Use
- Right to Encumber
- Right of Quiet Enjoyment

$$\text{REAL PROPERTY} = \text{REAL ESTATE} + \text{BUNDLE OF RIGHTS}$$